

San Antonio, TX – Congressman Charles A. Gonzalez will join community members to explore the ins and outs of America’s Affordable Health Choices Act. This bill will provide American families with stability and security, and the peace of mind knowing they will have access to affordable, quality health care.

Congressman Gonzalez will explain the legislation Congress is considering and hear from members of the community about their views on health insurance reform so that he can bring those views back to Washington as Congress continues its work on health reform.
