

In conjunction with the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) and the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) I am pleased to announce a very special opportunity for arts organization like yours. On February 17th I have invited special experts from the NEA and NEH to San Antonio to participate in a grant writing workshop. In cooperation with the City of San Antonio Office of Cultural Affairs, this special workshop will be an opportunity for arts and humanities organizations, both large and small, to learn about the many types of grants that exist at NEA and NEH. If your organization is thinking about applying for a federal grant, or has questions about a grant application you are currently working on, this workshop will be a great opportunity for you.

WHAT: NEA and NEH Workshop

WHEN: Friday, February 17, 2012

8:00 A.M.-12:00 P.M.

WHERE: Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center

200 East Market Street

Room 204

San Antonio, Texas 78206

Your organization adds to the richness and texture that make our community special and the NEA and NEH are eager to highlight organizations such as yours. Since its foundation in 1965, the NEA has granted $4 billion in funds to artists and arts organizations and the NEH has granted funds for individual projects seen by more than 40 million Americans. I hope your organization will take part in this exciting event.

Please RSVP by February 10 to Adam Flores-Boffa or Stephanie Smith at 210-472-6195 or via email at adam.flores@mail.house.gov .
